COURSE INFORMATION

SAMPLE ITINERARY - COLLEGIATE GOLF SOUTHWEST IRELAND TOUR

Tralee Golf Club

Founded: 1983
(present location)
Designer: Arnold Palmer
Championship Length: 6,806 yards
Par: 71
SSS Course Rating: 73
Course Type: Links

Representing the first European design of Arnold Palmer, Tralee Golf Club in southwestern Ireland is one of the most spectacularly beautiful golf courses you will ever encounter. And while beauty often masks certain deficiencies in a golf course, that is certainly not the case with Tralee. Having completed his masterpiece, Palmer commented: "I have never come across a piece of land so ideally suited for the building of a golf course. I am happy that we have one of the world's great links here". While it always boasted a magnificent setting, with the course settling down and the greens thriving over time, Tralee has now joined the elite group of Irish links. With views of the Atlantic and white sandy beaches from almost every hole, Tralee earns rave reviews from all who play it. Renowned golf writer Peter Dobereiner aptly summed up the experience of playing here, commenting: "As a spectacle, Tralee is in a different class...the setting is quite the most magnificent backdrop for a golf course...."

Ballybunion (Old) Golf Club

Founded: 1893
Designer: Tom Watson
Championship Length: 6,638 yards
Par: 71
SSS Course Rating: 73
Course Type: Links

The very name Ballybunion Golf Club strikes a chord with golfing enthusiasts around the globe. Rated one of the ten best golf courses in the world, standing on the first tee at Ballybunion is every bit as awe inspiring as one could imagine. "It's a course you will always enjoy and never tire of playing...In short, Ballybunion is a course on which many golf architects should live and play before they build a golf course. I consider it a true test of golf." - Tom Watson

Killarney Golf Club/ Killeen Course

Founded: 1971
Designer: Dr. Billy O' Sullivan, Eddie Hackett
Championship Length: 7,121 yards
Par: 72
SSS Course Rating: 73
Course Type: Parkland

Nestled amidst the splendor of the Lakes of Killarney in the shadow of the majestic Macgillycuddy's Reeks mountains, the Killeen Course is consistently rated amongst the world's best. Among the finest holes on the Killeen Course are the par three's at holes 3 and 6 and also the closing two holes, particularly the 18th, which requires a drive from a raised tee and an approach over water to the green.

Doonbeg Golf Club

The Greg Norman designed Doonbeg Golf Links opened for general play in 2002 and has already taken its place among the great courses of the Irish southwest. Within the parish of Doonbeg in County Clare, the links land that remains untouched by time sits astride a rugged piece of Atlantic coastline and will soon rank with Ballybunion and Lahinch as one of the finest golf courses in Ireland.
