

NOVEMBER 19-24, 2011

EA SPORTS™ MAUI INVITATIONAL®

KAHULUI, HAWAII

Travel Package Inclusions:

- Team Charter Flight
(Optional Upgrade)
- Accommodations for five or six nights
- General Admission Game Ticket
- Tip-Off Banquet Admission
- Game Day Transportation
- Souvenir
- Name Badge
- On-Site Tour Directors

(888) 632-6951

DUKE@ANTHONYTRAVEL.COM

DUKEFANTRAVEL.COM

EA SPORTS™ Maui Invitational® Hosted by Chaminade University At A Glance First Expansion Since 1986

In October of 2010, the Invitational announced that starting in 2011 the tournament will expand from eight to 12 teams with the addition of four Division I institutions. The total number of tournament games will also expand from 12 games currently played on the island of Maui to a total of 23 games, which include 11 games played on the U.S. mainland.

2011 Tournament Field

In conjunction with tournament expansion, the EA SPORTS Maui Invitational also announced the eight teams that will be bound for the 2011 tournament championship round at Maui's famed Lahaina Civic Center during Thanksgiving Week next year. Of the seven Division I institutions, there are a combined 20 NCAA National Championships and seven EA SPORTS Maui Invitational championships. The field also consists of three of the top eight winningest Division I men's basketball programs (Duke, Kansas, UCLA). Along with the perennial tournament host school Chaminade University of Honolulu, the 2011 teams include: Duke, Georgetown, Kansas, Memphis, Michigan, Tennessee and UCLA. The four newly-added Division I mainland tournament teams will be announced at a later date.

Duke returns to the island of Maui for a fifth time. The Blue Devils have a perfect 12-0 record in Maui under head coach Mike Krzyzewski and took home the 2007, 2001, 1997 and 1992 crowns.

An Evening with the Coaches

The 2011 Tip-Off Banquet will be held Sunday, November 20th from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Hyatt Regency Maui Resort & Spa. Don't miss out on this opportunity to see all of the players and listen to each Head Coach speak. The banquet is a great way to get into the spirit of the tournament and to get ready for three days of exciting basketball! Admission to the banquet is included in the travel package. A cash bar will be available from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m.